TOPS CLUB

By Susan A. Martin, Secretary

Twenty members were present at the September 22 meeting of the TOPS CLUB with a total weight loss of 37 pounds and a gain of 1½ pounds. Lois Lakie was top loser for the week.

The winners of the TOPS contest were:

1st Place - Thelma Knight winning $50

2nd Place - Barbara Mayberry and Jo Ann Shorter winning $25

A new contest will begin September 29. Barbara Mayberry will prepare and present the details of the contest during this next meeting.

An interesting program dealing with self-awareness was presented by Lois Lutke. A summary of the questions and answers discussed were:

Q - Why did you start your diet?

A - Self-esteem is the best reason for dieting.

Q - What causes you to go off your diet?

A - Downfall for dieters can be parties and special events - try eating lo-cal snacks and/or save your calories for that special event.

Q - Do you reward yourself?

A - Rewards, of any kind, help make the struggle worthwhile.

Q - What makes you stick to your diet or go off your diet?

A - Encouragement through compliments from family and friends, and seeing a weight loss on the scales help the dieter continue to diet. But, the dieter may be afraid of change - the closer they get to their goals, the harder it becomes to say on their diet.

Overweight is not an isolated problem. It affects the dieter's feeling about themselves and those around them.

Learn to like yourself. Come to the next TOPS meeting - held each Thursday evening, 7 p.m., Fidelity American Branch Bank. Weigh-in begins at 6:30 p.m. Join in the fun of a new contest and make new friends.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan A. Martin, Secretary

The Daniel Players will open the current season next week with a production of the comedy, "Dear Liar." The first performance is slated for Thursday, October 6th and the play will run through Saturday, October 8th. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

"Dear Liar" chronicles the romance and life-long friend-George Bernard Shaw and the celebrated actress, Mrs. Patrick Campbell. The play was originally written by Jerome Kilty as a vehicle for the late Katherine Cornell and Brian Aherne. After along run on Broadway, Cornell and Aherne toured with it for two years throughout the English speaking world.

The author has drawn heavily on the correspondence of the witty Mr. Shaw and the earthy Mrs. Campbell, spanning several decades. The audiences follows the romance as it blooms and ripens into deep friendship, primarily through the words of the playwright and the actress.

Playing the lead roles are Dudley Sauve as George Bernard Shaw and Dr. Rosemary Sprague as Mrs. Patrick Campbell. Mr. Sauve also directs the production.

Mordi Gassner has designed the ingenious act. Dr. Richard Roedersheimer has plotted the lighting and will serve as stage manager.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Travis Taylor Wooldridge who passed away October 1, 1965.

Twelve long years has passed
Since you went away.
And we know there isn't another
Who can fill your place today.
We have missed you, oh so often.
And have thought of you each day.
In our hearts the memory lingers of the day you passed away.
We loved you yes we loved you
But Jesus loved you best and He sweetly called you to His shining shore to rest.
